

Pending Orders

3.2.1

You can view all the unfilled orders. Select “Pending Orders” under the “Order Status” section on the Trading Menu.

The screenshot shows the Boom Securities trading platform. At the top, there are navigation tabs: "Our Services", "Trading & Portfolio", "My Account", "Stock Picks", "Research", "Market Info", and "About Us". Below these are buttons for "Sell Order", "Advanced Order", "Stock Quote", "Order Status", and "Order History". The "Order Status" dropdown menu is open, showing options: "Intraday Executions", "Pending Orders", "Pending IPO Instructions", and "Pending Mutual Funds". A red arrow points to the "Pending Orders" option. Below the menu, the "Margin Account" section is visible, showing "Total Portfolio Value (approx.) HKD 100,000,000.00". At the bottom, there are buttons for "Instructions HKD", "MF Subscriptions HKD", "Fund Withdrawal HKD", and "Total Fund Reserved".

Detailed Order Status

3.2.3

The order processing status will be displayed.

The screenshot shows the "Instruction History Detail" page for order ID 1000580317. The page header includes "Boom Securities (H.K.) Limited" and "寶盛證券(香港)有限公司". Navigation tabs are similar to the previous screenshot. The "Instruction History Detail" section shows a table with columns: Date, Status, Qty, Price, GTD, and Additional Message. The table contains two rows: one for "Open" status at 02:49:49 PM and one for "change instruction executed" status at 02:54:57 PM. A red arrow points to the "change instruction executed" row. Below the table, there are navigation links and a footer with copyright information.

Order Status

3.2.2

For detailed order status of an order, click on the respective Order ID.

The screenshot shows the "Pending Orders" page. It features a "Market" dropdown set to "ALL". Below is a table with columns: Seq, Mkt, Order ID, Buy/Sell, Order Type, Date, Code, Qty, Price, Status, Filled Qty, Good Till Date, Instructions, and Bulk Cancel. There are two pending orders listed. A red arrow points to the "Change" link in the "Instructions" column for the first order. Below the table is a "Fund Available" section with a table showing values for USD, HKD, JPY, AUD, and SGD. At the bottom, there are navigation links and a footer with copyright information.

Change or Cancel Order

3.2.4

You can change or cancel unfilled orders by clicking the “Change” or “Cancel” link.

This screenshot is identical to the previous one, showing the "Pending Orders" page. A red arrow points to the "Cancel" link in the "Instructions" column for the first order.
